Course Overview

With the introduction of Adjudication in the proposed Security of Payment Legislation in Hong Kong, Adjudication is set to become the “first-tier” dispute resolution method in construction contracts. This short course will provide an overview of Adjudication, the Adjudication process and its strength and weakness in resolving commercial disputes. The laws relating to Adjudication, the applicable Adjudication Rules as well as the use of Adjudication in Hong Kong and overseas will also be discussed.

About the Speaker:

Dr Christopher To is currently the Executive Director of the Construction Industry Council, Hong Kong, and was previously the Secretary General of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre. He is an accredited mediator, chartered arbitrator, chartered engineer and chartered information technology professional.

Dr To holds adjunct professorships from a variety of academic institutions and is on the board of a wide range of organisations ranging from education, engineering and IT to research and development. He is the immediate Past Chairman of the East Asia Branch of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, an At-Large Council Member of the Inter-Pacific Bar Association, an Executive Committee Member of the Hong Kong Corporate Counsel Association, a Council Member of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre and the Asian Domain Name Dispute Resolution Centre.

Dr To has written substantially on the subjects of Alternative Dispute Resolution, International Construction Law, International Arbitration, Commercial Contracts and Mediation. He is a sought-after speaker/moderator at international forums and he lectures regularly at various leading universities. In 2001, Dr To was the youngest director awarded the Director of the Year Award in Hong Kong and in 2007 he was named as a Young Global Leader by the World Economic Forum.
