

Technical Visit to Shenzhen Qianhai

Details

Date : 5 January 2024 (Friday)

Venue : Shenzhen Qianhai

Time : 7:45am – 6:30pm

(Assembly at Kowloon Tong)

(Registration at 7:30am)

Programme Outline:

Shenzhen Qianhai as an international bay area now has several core development elements such as an airport hub, a seaport hub, convention and exhibition business centers, and modern services. Being a pioneering business zone to promote the high quality development of modern services industries, including finance, logistics, information technology and science technology, Qianhai has been designed as a pilot zone for various green engineering developments including green building design, smart grid and energy efficiency.

The following key developments will be visited

- Qianhai Exhibition Hall (前海展示廳)
- Qianhai International Convention Centre (前海國際會議中心)
- Qianhai District Cooling System (前海區域集中供冷)
- Qianhai International Talent Hub (前海國際人才港)
- Qianhai Shenzhen-Hong Kong Youth Innovation and Entrepreneur Hub (前海青年夢工場)

* Round trip transportation from Kowloon Tong to Qianhai and casual lunch are included.

Medium of instruction:

Mandarin / Cantonese
